Department of Revenue

REPORT

STATE DEPARTMENT of REVENUE

TO THE

Governor and Members of the Forty-fourth Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana

FOR THE PERIOD

July 1, 1972 to June 30, 1974

WILLIAM A. GROFF
Acting Director

Following the adoption of the new Montana Constitution in 1972, the Forty-Third Legislative Assembly abolished the three member State Board of Equalization and established a reorganized State Department of Revenue. The Department of Revenue is now administered by a Director who is appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the State Senate. The First Biennial Report of the Department follows the format of the twenty-five preceding reports submitted to the Governor and the Legislative Assembly by the State Board of Equalization. It is important that the Department maintain the historic data series developed by the State Board of Equalization over the past fifty years. This report will be expanded in the future to include statistics concerning all areas of responsibility of the State Department of Revenue.

Section 3 of Article 8 of the Montana Constitution reads as follows: "The State shall appraise, assess and equalize the valuation of all property which is to be taxed in the manner provided by law." Implementation of this provision of the Constitution was not an easy task for the Legislature, the Department of Revenue, or the elected officials and employees of local government. In compliance with this section, the Forty-Third Legislature established the Property Assessment Division of the Department of Revenue, provided that all appraisal personnel employed by the various counties would become employees of the State, and named the elected County Assessors as agents of the Department of Revenue. All costs of the property appraisal and assessment process in Montana including the salaries of the County Assessors, are now paid from the State General Fund. This has added more than four hundred and fifty employees to the payroll of the Department of Revenue. The assumption of these responsibilities and expenses by the State provided some small measure of property tax relief to Montanans and, more important, instituted one of two property assessment programs fully administered at the State level in the United States. Montana is now in a position to provide fair, just, and equitable property tax assessments across all counties in the State. The reorganization of the Property Assessment Program could not have been accomplished without the support and cooperation of the elected County Assessors, County Commissioners, and other local officials, as well as the employees in the county courthouses. The improvements the Department has made in the property tax field during the past 18 months are largely due to the assistance and diligence of these people.

The Department has developed and is now installing a computer assisted mass appraisal system in all counties of the State. The use of computer technology will insure timely and uniform appraisals of all property in the State and it will allows the County Assessors to provide complete information to all taxpayers concerning the methods of arriving at property values for tax purposes. The Department is confident that the computer-assisted program will remove many of the inequities and much of the mystery which has surrounded property taxation in Montana in the past.

A major responsibility of the Department is administration of the Montana Income Tax Laws. An adequate audit program is fundamental to the proper administration of these laws. For several years, our Personal Income Tax operation has been faced with the same problem as the Internal Revenue Service — as the number of returns increase and as the complexity of the law increases, the number of returns and number of items requiring audit increases at an accelerating rate, thus consuming more and more audit resources in an already understaffed function.

Our audit selection program establishes beyond doubt the need to annually audit twice the number of returns we presently have been able to review. Available resources have not permitted an increased audit effort. We cannot rely extensively on the Internal Revenue Service to perform all necessary auditing, particularly in view of the fact that it has been auditing less than 3% of returns filed. We are confident that an increased audit effort will more than pay for the additional cost through increased revenue. Voluntary compliance by the taxpayer in filling correct tax returns will also improve as a direct result of this effort.

The Corporation Tax Program did experience an increased audit effort during the past fiscal year. With the additional audit effort and the increased corporate earnings, total revenue collected exceeded that collected the previous year by $3.5 million. Notwithstanding the increased revenue, audit coverage is still limited. Approximately 2,000 multistate corporations file returns with the Department and each should be audited at least once every five years. In order to achieve this goal an orderly increase in the field audit program is needed.

The Department was assigned responsibility for the administration of the new Consumer Counsel Tax and the new Resource Indemnity Trust Tax by the 1973 Legislative Assembly. No additional funding accompanied the additional responsibilities. The Department is experiencing "growing pains" in these areas due to the limited administrative clerical time and the absence of field audit capabilities. There is presently a lack of uniformity in filing procedures, penalty and interest rates and application and other administrative procedures concerning most of the license taxes. Additional resources are essential to eliminate these problem areas. Again, additional auditors would more than pay the increased program costs.

Changes have taken place in the Liquor Division that will be beneficial both economically and administratively, i.e. the department has computerized retail pricing, licensing, and quota update and renewal procedures; several stores were converted to "self-service" operations. Sales in these stores have increased at a greater rate as a direct result. For more efficient operations and better consumer service, we believe the need exists for four additional stores in selected cities. Consideration should also be given to closing stores that are unprofitable and in close proximity of other state stores.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Department recommends tha a Realty Transfer Act be passed during the Forty-Fourth Legislative Assembly. This act will provide that all sales of property must be reported to the Department of Revenue at the time of sale. Similar acts have been passed in more than thirty-five states. The assessment process in Montana has been severely hampered by the absence of this very important law. Section 84-302, R.C.M., 1947, requires that all property be appraised at its true and full value. True and full value is synonymous with sales price. Since 1919 State law has required that property be appraised for tax purposes at market value. However, the assessing agency has not been provided with the tools necessary to establish the market value of property in the State. The Forty-Third Legislative Assembly appropriated more than one million dollars to the Department of Revenue for the design and implementation of the computer appraisal program with the expectation that this program would help provide equity and fairness to the property tax system. The computerized appraisal system will not operate without current sales information. The more sales information that is available to the Department, the more equitable the assessments of property will be across the State. If the Department of Revenue is to provide the equity in property taxation demanded by the Legislature, it must be provided with the tools for proper assessment practices. The Realty Transfer Act is vital to this process.

During the past year the Department of Revenue has conducted many audits for property tax purposes. Audits of banks and mining firms have resulted in supplemental assessments and increased revenues to local government units in Montana. The audit program has been established from existing appropriations to the Department. Although this program has proven its worth, the Department has not asked for state funds to expand the program. The Department recommends that legislation be enacted to allow the Department of Revenue to charge actual audit costs to the local units of government which benefit from the audit program. Such a law would allow the Department to expand the audit program at no cost to the State General Fund. The units of local government which receive additional revenue as a result of property tax audits could pay the audit fees from the increased revenue resulting from the additional assessments. The Department further recommends that the audit fee not be allowed to exceed the revenue generated as a result of any supplemental assessment. This will insure no hardship on local government as a result of this program. If this recommendations is not acceptable to the Legislative Assembly, additional money should be appropriated from the General Fund for expansion of the property tax audit function.

The Department recommends that the Legislature appropriate the funds requested for the purpose of hiring four additional Income Tax Auditors. This will represent a 50% increase in staff but the added expense will be more than offset by the additional revenue collected.

By reason of the fact that the Montana Income Tax liability is essentially determined by reference to the Internal Revenue Code and the fact that taxpayers are allowed an automatic sixty day extension for filing Federal Income Tax Returns, it has become necessary for us to grant several thousand additional extensions for the filing of Montana returns. The process of so doing is expensive in terms of both cash outlay and manpower consumed. This cost could be substantially reduced through the enactment of proposed legislation providing an automatic sixty day extension, upon application, for filing of Montana Individual Income Tax returns. The Department recommends that such legislation be approved.

The existing statutory penalties for the late filing of a return or the late payment of a tax are exceedingly harsh when applied to situations involving trivial delinquencies. It is recommended that proposed legislation be enacted which will reduce the penalty in cases of minor infractions and give the Department a degree of latitude in the matter of abating penalties when the imposition thereof serves no valid purpose.

The Department recommends that an orderly increase in manpower for field audit in the Corporation Tax Program continue over a period of years. The addition of two auditors in 1975 would increase revenue audits by approximately $300,000 per year.

In order to provide the needed audit coverage for the various miscellaneous taxes assigned to the Department for administration and collection, including Electrical Energy Tax, Resource Indemnity Trust Tax, Oil and Coal Production Tax, Consumer Council Tax, and in order to effectively administer these taxes, the Department recommends that funding be provided for additional clerical personnel and field auditors. The Department also recommends that legislation be approved which would standardize, as much as possible, the filing, payment of tax due, and processing of the various taxes.

Editors Note: Information concerning assessed values for Yellowstone County arrived too late for inclusion in the body of the Report. Summary data may be found on page 92.

STRUCTURE AND FUNCTIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

The Department of Revenue is charged with several duties by section 84-708.1 R.C.M. (1947). These duties fall into five main categories:

(1) General supervision over the administration of state tax laws;

(2) Assessment of intercounty property and apportionment of these assessments to the counties in which the properties are located;

(3) Equalization of valuation of taxable property;

(4) Continuing research aimed at greater efficiency in administration of tax laws and at formulation of legislation which will result in more equitable and just taxation; and,

(5) Supervision of the sale and taxation of distilled spirits, wine, and beer.

The Department of Revenue consists of six operating Divisions which have actual administrative reponsibility for tax laws and five support Divisions which perform a variety of internal functions within the Department.

The following table indicates the administrative reponsibility of each operating Division.

DIVISION	Administrative Responsibility

TAXATION OF MINES

Net Proceeds Tax

Montana's net proceeds tax law provides a special method for assessing the value of mining property. The drafters of Montana's first Constitution and mine tax law recognized the difficulty of valuing the mineral bearing property of the state, and didn't wish to have taxes imposed which would impede the development of the mining industry. Thus, net proceeds, defined as the annual gross value of the product of mines less certain deductions, plus the price paid the U.S. government for the mineral property ($2.50 to $20.00 per acre), serve as the measure of the value of mining property and take the regular mill levies of the taxing district in which the property lies. While Montana's new Constitution makes no reference to taxation of mines, the net proceeds provisions remain in effect.

Coal mines, oil and gas properties, lime rock, gypsum and other quarries and mines producing valuable minerals and stones, all come under the provisions of the net proceeds law. The taxable value of the assessment of net proceeds and the price of mining property paid the U.S. government is 100% of full and true value. Royalties from mineral production are also taxable at 100% of full and true value. In the case of oil and gas, royalties are assessed to and taxes are paid by the operator in behalf of the royalty owner. Other royalties are assessed directly to the owner and taxes are paid by him. The taxable value of machinery, structures and appurtenances is 30% of full and true value. If the surface ground of a mine is used for some purpose other than mining, it is assessed at its full value and is taxable for such other purpose.

License Taxes

In addition to the property taxes paid on the assessments listed above mine operators pay certain license or severance taxes to the state. Oil producers pay 2.1% of the value of the first 450 barrels of all oil produced and 2.65% on the balance of production. Like the oil producers license tax, the metalliferous mines license tax is also an ad valorem severance tax. Metal mine operators pay .15% of the first $100,000 of gross product plus one dollar; .575% of the next $150,000 of gross product; .86% of the next $150,000 of gross product; 1.15% of the next $100,000 of gross product; and 1.438% of any gross product over $500,000 in value.

Strip coal mine operators pay 12 cents per ton of coal rated less than or equal to 7,000 BTU per pound; 22 cents per ton rated greater than 7,000 and less than or equal to 8,000 BTU per pound; 34 cents per ton rated greater than 8,000 and less than or equal to 9,000 BTU per pound; and 40 cents per ton rated greater than 9,000 BTU per pound on all coal mined in excess of 5,000 tons annually. The strip coal mines license tax is a specific per ton severance tax, as are the cement and gypsum producers license taxes and the micaceous mineral mines license tax. Cement and gypsum products producers pay 4 cents per barrel (375 lbs.) of cement and 5 cents per ton of gypsum. Micaceous minerals (vermiculite, perlite, kerrite, maconite, etc.) producers pay 5 cents per ton of product.

Oil and gas producers also pay a severance tax to defray the expenses of the Oil and Gas Conservation Commission. It is ⅜ cents per barrel of oil on leases with wells producing an average 25 barrels per day or less; ¾ cents per barrel of oil on leases with wells producing an average exceeding 25 barrels per day; 2½ mills per 10,000 CF on gas marketed for less than 15 cents per 1,000 CF; 5 mills per 10,000 CF on gas marketed for 15 cents or more per 1,000 CF. Natural gas distributors (not necessarily producers) pay a distribution tax of .575 cents per 1,000 CF. Coal and cement retailers pay a retailers license tax. Finally, all nonrenewable resource producers pay the Resource Indemnity Trust Tax of .5% of the gross value of their production. The proceeds of this tax which will be used for environmental protection and improvement.
